Living Clean – The Journey Continues

Living Clean - The Journey Continues is a new book we are compiling about how we live the program through our challenges and successes. We are all working together to write this book, collecting our experience as a fellowship practicing the principles in our daily lives.

To make this book a reality we need you. We invite you to share your experience in recovery; tell us about the times when life didn’t go as planned—for better or worse—and NA gave you the tools to respond. Tell us about those moments that changed the course of your recovery. We want to hear about them.

The more material we have from the outset, the better the book will be. To that end, we are trying some new methods of gathering source material.

We have a new discussion board specifically for Living Clean where members who register can offer their input and experience on the topics to be covered in the book. Each chapter on the bulletin board covers a different topic. You’ll also be able to see the contributions of other members and interact with them. The discussion board is located here: http://naws.org/lc/index.php. For those of you who choose not to share in a public forum, you can also send us your ideas and input directly to livingclean@na.org (as always you can send input via regular mail to NAWS).

Living Clean has its own page on our website where you can find links to the discussion board and additional information on the project, including review and input dates: http://web.na.org/?ID=Living_Clean_Project

Help us write NA’s newest book.
