Staff and Offices

Two distribution centers—one in Mississauga, Ontario, Canada, and the other in Bangalore, India—play a vital role in furthering our vision. Jacquie Sullivan, Paul Sullivan, and Stephanie Karas staff the Mississauga center, serving the literature needs of Canadian NA communities, while Pramila Dias distributes literature in 12 languages throughout South Asia from the Bangalore center.

NAWS has two branch offices—one in Brussels, Belgium, and the other in Tehran, Iran. Paul Decock and Fred Renaux maintain our European branch, where they distribute literature in 35 different languages. They print some of the literature onsite and provide some literature at no cost to emerging NA communities in Eastern Europe and Africa. They also serve members, groups, and institutions seeking information about NA, process contributions to NAWS, and support the continent's zonal forum, the European Delegates Meeting. We are sad we will be saying good-bye to Fred soon. At the time of this writing, a job opening has been posted at the Brussels office. Best of luck in your next adventures, Fred.

Siamak Khajeian manages the Iranian branch of the World Service Office, which supports NA's fastest-growing community and its 21,974 meetings. He and his staff at the Tehran service center, Mohammad Ahmari, Shahram Chegini, Nemat Hosseini, and Farhad Poorsohi, produce and distribute NA literature in Farsi. They also assist in the translation of documents and support many of the essential services offered by the region.

Narcotics Anonymous World Services in Chatsworth, California, is the central resource hub for NA members, groups, and service bodies worldwide. The executive and administrative staff work with the World Board to carry out Conference-approved projects, coordinate workgroups, and execute the World Convention. They communicate with members through a variety of periodicals, reports, web meetings, and emails, and respond to inquiries from the public. The California office is also responsible for the production and distribution of NA literature, protection of the Fellowship's copyrights and trademarks, and maintenance of our website, www.na.org.
