We’ve got a new book in the making!

Visit the landing page for the Spiritual Principle a Day (SPAD) Book Project at www.na.org/spad where you’ll find:

- Principles and quotations to inspire you to write on your own or host workshops
- Up-to-date information about Fellowship review and input (R&I)

How do we practice spiritual principles?
Members’ experience forms the very fabric of each entry drafted for the SPAD book project. We weave together your submissions to create literature that’s truly ours. Visit na.org/spad for selected quotations to inspire your writing or use in a workshop setting. Consider planning regular get-togethers with your friends, sponsees, or home-group members to contribute to this effort, or working through your local service body to form a project-based workgroup or ad hoc committee.

Submit your writing on these principles by the end of October 2019:

Anonymity • Discernment • Empathy • Faith • Gratitude
Honesty • Hope • Open-mindedness • Willingness • Vigilance

New principles & quotations to work on through February 2020:

Authenticity • Awareness • Courage • Freedom • Hospitality
Inclusiveness • Integrity • Patience • Prudence • Self-Acceptance

You can submit your input online (na.org/spad),
by email (spad@na.org),
or by mail (SPAD; 19737 Nordhoff Place; Chatsworth, CA 91311 USA)
